- (xvi) reviewing the equity incentive plan;
- (xvii) reviewing the connection transactions that should be reviewed by the general meeting;
- (xviii) reviewing other matters that should be decided by the general meeting according to the laws, administrative regulations, department rules and Articles of Association.

Article 12 The following external guarantees of the Company must be reviewed and approved by the general meeting.

- (i) any guarantee provided after the total amount of the external guarantees provided by the Company and its controlling subsidiaries reaches or exceeds 50% of the audited net assets for the latest period;
- (ii) any guarantee provided after the total amount of the external guarantees provided by the Company reaches or exceeds 30% of the audited total assets for the latest period;
- (iii) the guarantee provided to the guaranteed object with a debt-to-asset ratio of more than 70%;
- (iv) any single guarantee whose amount exceeds 10% of the audited net assets for the latest period;
- (v) any guarantee provided to the shareholder, actual controller and its related party.

Article 13 When the proposal for providing guarantee to the shareholder, actual controller and its related parties is reviewed by the general meeting, actual controller and its related parties, the relevant shareholder or the shareholders controlled by the actual controller shall not participate in the voting, and this proposal shall be passed by the more than half of the votes of other shareholders present at the meeting.

When the Company provides guarantees to the shareholder, actual controller and its affiliates, it must ask the counterparty to provide counter-guarantee, and the counter-guarantee provider shall have the actual performance capability.

The external guarantee mentioned in the Articles of Association refers to the guarantee mentioned in this article.

In addition to voting at onsite meeting, secure, economic and convenient online voting system for general meeting shall be provided to the shareholders through network service provider, in order to facilitate the exercise of voting rights by the shareholders.

Article 19 When the following matters are reviewed by the general meeting, in addition to onsite meeting, the Company may facilitate the shareholders' participation in the general meeting through the trading system of Shenzhen Stock Exchange and the online voting system:

- (1) Where the Company has substantial asset restructuring, and the total price of the purchased assets reaches or exceeds the audited net book value of the purchased assets for 20% or above;
- (2) Where the purchase or disposal of substantial assets or the guarantee amount within 1 year accounts for more than 30% of the audited total assets of the Company in the latest period;
- (3) Where the shareholder repay his/her debts to the Company with the shares of the Company he/she holds or physical assets;
- (4) Where the subsidiaries with significant influence on the Company are listed overseas;
- (5) The relevant matters that have significant influence on the rights and interests of the shareholders.

The shareholders shall be deemed as present when participating in the general meeting via the above-mentioned methods.

Article 20 If the general meeting adopts the online or other forms, the voting time and voting procedures for the online meeting or other forms of meeting shall be specified in the notice of general meeting. The beginning time of voting for the online or other forms of general meeting shall not be earlier than 3:00 p.m. one day before the holding of onsite general meeting and shall not be later than 9:30 a.m. on the holding date of the onsite general meeting, and its ending time shall not be earlier than 3:00 p.m. on the ending date of the onsite general meeting.

Article 21 When the Company convenes general meeting, it shall engage legal counsel to provide legal opinions on the following issues and make announcement:

- (i) whether the convening and holding procedures of the general meeting comply with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, Rules for General Meetings of Listed Companies and Articles of Association;
- (ii) whether the attendees and convener have legal and valid qualification;
- (iii) whether the voting procedures and results are legal and effective;
- (iv) legal opinions on other issues upon the request of the Company.

If the general meeting adopts online voting, the general meeting witness lawyer engaged by the Company shall also provide legal opinion on the online voting status of the general meeting.

The Board of Directors may also engage the notaries to attend the general meeting.

Article 22 The Board of Directors and Board of Supervisors shall take necessary measures to maintain the seriousness and normal order of the general meeting. The Company shall take measure to stop the conducts that interfere with the order of the general meeting, provoke trouble and infringe on the legal rights and interests of other shareholders and report to the relevant authorities for investigation.

The attendees shall observe the disciplines of the general meeting and ensure the smooth convening of the meeting.

Article 23 The Company shall adhere to the principle of simplicity when holding general meeting and shall not provide additional economic benefits to the shareholders (or proxies) attending the meeting.

Chapter III Convening of the General Meeting

Article 24 If the independent directors, Board of Supervisors or shareholders holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company separately or jointly request to convene extraordinary general meeting or class meeting, the following procedures shall be adopted:

- (i) Two or more shareholders holding more than 10% (inclusive) of the shares with voting right at the proposed meeting separately or jointly may sign one or more copies of written requests of the same format and content to ask the Board of Directors to convene the extraordinary general meeting or class meeting and describe the meeting topics. The Board of Directors shall provide written feedback on whether it approves to convene the extraordinary general meeting in 10 days after receiving the written request. The number of shareholdings stated above shall be calculated on the date when the shareholders provide the written request.

The independent directors are entitled to propose to the Board of Directors to convene the extraordinary general meeting. For the proposal of the independent directors to convene the extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall provide written feedback on whether it approves to convene the extraordinary general meeting in 10 days after receiving the proposal according to the provisions of the relevant laws, and all other provisions.

The independent Supervisors or shareholders are entitled to propose to the Board of Directors to convene the extraordinary general meeting. For the proposal of the independent Supervisors or shareholders to convene the extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall provide written feedback on whether it approves to convene the extraordinary general meeting in 10 days after receiving the proposal according to the provisions of the relevant laws, and all other provisions.

- (iv) If the Board of Directors disapproves the proposal of the Board of Supervisors to convene the extraordinary general meeting, or fails to provide feedback in 10 days after receiving the request, it shall be deemed that the Board of Directors cannot or fails to perform its duty of convening the general meeting, and the Board of Supervisors may convene and preside over the meeting on its own. The convening procedure shall adopt the same procedure that the Board of Directors uses to convene the general meeting when possible.
- (v) If the Board of Directors disapproves the proposal of the shareholders to convene the extraordinary general meeting, the shareholders shall make written proposal to the Board of Supervisors to convene the extraordinary general meeting.

If the Board of Supervisors approves to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue the notice of general meeting in 5 days after receiving the request. If there is any change to the original proposal in the notice, it shall be approved by the original proposer.

If the Board of Supervisors fails to issue the notice of general meeting within the specified time limit, it is deemed that the Board of Supervisors refuses to convene and preside over the general meeting, and the shareholders holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company for 90 days separately or jointly may convene and preside over the meeting at their own (provided that the shareholding proportion of the convening shareholders shall not be lower than 10% before the publication of the resolution of the general meeting). The convening procedure shall adopt the same procedure that the Board of Directors uses to convene the general meeting when possible. The convening shareholders shall submit the relevant supporting evidence to the local securities regulatory authority under the State Council and stock exchange where the Company is located when issuing the notice of general meeting and publicizing the resolution of the general meeting.

Article 25 If the Board of Supervisors or shareholders decide to convene the general meeting or class meeting at their own, they shall provide written notice to the Board of Directors and file with the CSRC Shenzhen Branch and Shenzhen Stock Exchange.

Article 26 The Supervisors and the convening shareholders shall submit the relevant supporting evidence to the CSRC Shenzhen Branch and Shenzhen Stock Exchange when issuing the notice of general meeting or class meeting and publicizing the resolution of the general meeting or class meeting.

Article 27 For the general meeting or class meeting convened by the Board of Supervisors or shareholders, the Board of Directors and Board Secretary shall provide cooperation. The Board of Directors shall provide the register of shareholders on the Record Date. If the Board of Directors fails to provide the register of shareholders, the convener may request to access the register at China Securities Depository and Clearing Company Limited Shenzhen Branch by presenting the relevant announcement of the notice of general meeting or class meeting. The register of shareholders obtained by the convener shall not be used for any purpose other than holding the general meeting or class meeting.

Article 28 If the Board of Supervisors or shareholders convene the general meeting or class meeting, the necessary meeting expense shall be assumed by the Company, and deducted from the payment due to the defaulting directors.

Chapter IV Proposal and Notice of General Meeting

Article 29 The proposal contents shall fall into the terms of reference of the general meeting. There shall be definite topics and specific matters for resolution. The proposal shall comply with the relevant provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association.

Article 30 The proposal to the general meeting shall be the specific proposal on the matters to be discussed at the general meeting. The general meeting shall provide reasonable discussion time for each proposal and make resolution for the specific proposals.

Article 31 When the Company convenes the general meeting, the Board of Directors, Board of Supervisors and shareholders holding more than 3% of the shares of the Company separately or jointly are entitled to provide proposal to the Company.

The shareholders holding more than 3% of the shares of the Company separately or jointly may raise temporary proposal and submit it to the convener in writing 10 days before the general meeting is held. The convener shall supplement the notice of general meeting in 2 days after receiving the proposal and publicize the content of the temporary proposal.

Except for the aforesaid situation, after the convener publicizes the notice of general meeting, the proposals listed in the notice shall not be modified, nor shall any new proposal be added.

For the proposals not listed in the notice of general meeting or not meeting the provisions of Article 29, the general meeting shall not vote and make resolution.

If the Company intends to convene general meeting to consider the matters listed in Article 12, after the Company issues the notice of general meeting, it shall publicize the notice of general meeting again in 3 days after the Record Date.

Article 32 The convener shall issue written notice and make announcement 45 days before the holding of the general meeting, so as to notify all the shareholders listed on the register of the matters to be considered at the meeting and the meeting date and place. The shareholders intended to attend the general meeting shall deliver the written reply for attending the meeting to the Company 20 days before the holding of the general meeting.

When calculating the notice time, the meeting date and the issuing date of the notice shall not be counted.

As to the notice given under this article, the issuing date shall be the date when the Company or the share registry engaged by the Company delivers the notice to the postal service.

Article 33 The notice of general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

- (i) made in written form;
- (ii) specifying the meeting place, date and time;
- (iii) describing the matters and proposals to be discussed at the meeting;

- (iv) providing the shareholders with the information and explanations necessary for them to make informed decision on the matters discussed; This principle includes (but is not limited to) the requirement that when the Company intends to make merger, repurchase shares, make capital restructuring or other reform, it shall provide the specific conditions and contracts (if any) of the proposed transaction, and make detailed explanation on the causes and consequences;
- (v) if any director, supervisor, president or other senior executive has material interest in the matters to be discussed, the nature and extent of the interest shall be disclosed; if the influence of the matters to be discussed on the relevant director, supervisor, president or other senior executive is different from the influence on other shareholders of the same class, the relevant difference shall be specified;
- (vi) containing full text of the special resolution proposed to pass at the meeting;
- (vii) stating in conspicuous text that all the shareholders are entitled to attend the general meeting, and the shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the meeting may appoint one or more shareholders to attend and vote on his/their behalf, and it is not necessary for the shareholder proxy to be a shareholder;
- (viii) specifying the delivery time and place of the power of attorney for voting;
- (ix) specifying the Record Date of the shareholders entitled to attend the general meeting;
- (x) containing the name and telephone number of the permanent contact person for the meeting.

Article 34 The notice of general meeting shall be delivered to the shareholder (whether he has voting rights at the general meeting or not) by sending to the address of the shareholder listed in the register of shareholders via personal delivery or prepaid mail. For the holders of domestic shares, the notice of general meeting may also be sent via public announcement.

The aforesaid public announcement shall be published on one or several newspapers designated by the securities regulatory authority under the State Council in the period of 45 days to 50 days prior to the holding of the meeting. Once public announcement is made, it is deemed that all the holders of domestic shares have received the notice of the relevant general meeting.

Article 35 The notice of general meeting and the supplementary notice shall fully and completely disclose the contents of the proposals and all the information or explanations necessary for the shareholders to make informed judgment on the matters to be discussed. If independent directors are required to provide opinions on the matters to be discussed, the opinions and grounds of the independent directors shall be disclosed when issuing the notice of general meeting or supplementary notice.

Article 36 The interval between the Record Date and the meeting date shall be no more than 7 working days. The Record Date shall not be changed once confirmed.

Article 37 If the director and supervisor election matters are discussed at the general meeting, the notice of general meeting shall fully disclose the detailed information of the candidate director and supervisor, at least including:

- (i) such personal data as education background, work experience and part-time jobs;

- (ii) whether he is affiliated with the Company or the controlling shareholder and actual controller of the Company;
- (iii) disclosure of the number of the Company he holds;
- (iv) whether he has been punished by the CSRC, other relevant authorities and Shenzhen Stock Exchange.

Except for the director and supervisor elected via cumulative voting, each director or supervisor candidate shall be proposed via a single proposal.

Article 38 If the proposal involves investment, property disposal and M&A, the proposer shall fully explain the relevant details, including the amount, price (or pricing method), the book value of the asset, the influence on the Company and the approval status. If asset evaluation, audit or report of independent financial advisor is required according to the relevant regulations, the Board of Directors shall publicize the asset evaluation status, audit result or the report of independent financial advisor at least 5 working days before the holding of general meeting.

Article 39 If the Board of Directors proposes to change the use of proceeds from offering, it shall describe the reason for changing the use of proceeds, the profile of the new project and the influence on the future of the Company in the notice of general meeting.

Article 40 The matters that need to be submitted to the CSRC for approval, such as public offering, shall be raised as special proposal.

Article 41 When the Board of Directors has reviewed and approved the annual report, it shall make resolution on the profit distribution scheme and make a proposal to the annual general meeting. If the Board of Directors proposes the capital reserves capitalization scheme, it shall describe in detail the reason for capitalization and make corresponding disclosure in the public announcement. When making announcement on bonus issue or capital reserves capitalization scheme, the Board of Directors shall disclose the earnings per share and net assets per share before and after the bonus issue or capitalization transfer and its influence on the future development of the Company.

Article 42 The Board of Director shall raise proposal on the engagement of accounting firm, which shall be approved by general meeting through voting.

Article 43 For the external guarantees of the Company that need to be reviewed by the general meeting, the Board of Directors shall raise proposal and fully describe the relevant details, including but not limited to the guarantee amount, guarantee method, guaranteed object and its credit status.

The Board of Directors may review the external guarantees of the Company within the scope of authorization of the general meeting.

Article 44 When the notice of general meeting is issued, the general meeting shall not be adjourned or cancelled without just cause, and the proposals listed in the notice of general meeting shall not be cancelled. In case of the general meeting is adjourned or cancelled, the convener shall make public announcement and explain the reasons at least 2 working days before the original holding date.

Chapter V Holding of the General Meeting

Article 45 The Board of Directors and other conveners shall take necessary measures to maintain the normal order of the general meeting. They shall take measures to stop the conducts that interfere with the general meeting, provoke trouble and infringe on the legal rights and interests of the shareholders and report to the relevant authorities for investigation.

Article 46 All the shareholders listed in the register of shareholders on the Record Date or their proxies are entitled to attend the general meeting, and exercise the voting rights according to the relevant laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association.

Article 47 The shareholder may attend the general meeting and vote in person, or entrust others to attend on his behalf the meeting and exercise the voting rights within the scope of authorization.

Article 48 Any shareholder entitled to attend the general meeting and vote has the right to appoint one or more persons (who may not be a shareholder) as his shareholder proxy to attend and vote on his behalf. The shareholder proxy may exercise the following rights according to the authorization of the shareholder:

- (i) the speaking right of the shareholder at the general meeting;
- (ii) requesting to vote by ballot separately or together with others;
- (iii) exercising the voting right by raising hand or ballot, provided that if more than one proxy is entrusted, the shareholder proxies shall vote by ballot only.

Article 49 When the individual shareholder attend the general meeting in person, he shall present his ID card or other valid certificate that can prove his identity and his share account card. If the person attends the meeting on behalf of other shareholder, he shall present his valid identity document and the power of attorney of the relevant shareholder.

The legal person shareholder shall have its legal representative or the proxy entrusted by the legal representative attend the meeting. When the legal representative attends the meeting, he shall present his ID card, the valid evidence that proves his qualification as the legal person. When the proxy attends the meeting, the proxy shall present his ID card and the written power of attorney issued by the legal representative of the legal person shareholder.

If the shareholders or their proxies vote through the online voting system for the general meeting, they shall participate in the online voting within the time limit specified in the notice of general meeting.

Article 50 The shareholder shall entrust the proxy via written power of attorney, which shall be signed by the principal or the proxy he entrusts in writing. If the principal is a legal person, the power of attorney shall be stamped with the seal of the legal person or signed by the chairman of the Board or duly appointed proxy.

The power of attorney that the shareholder presents to entrust others to attend the meeting shall contain the following contents:

- (i) name of the proxy;

- (viii) other matters required by the listing rules of stock exchanges in which the Company's shares listed.

Article 68 A shareholder (including his or her proxy) shall exercise the voting rights to the extent of the number of shares it holds or represents. Save as the provisions of Article 85 of the Rules of Procedures on the adoption of cumulative voting systems for the election of directors and supervisors, there shall be one vote for each share, subject to any prerogatives or restrictions attached to the voting rights of any class of shares at that time, and compliance with the applicable laws, regulations and Articles of Association when conducting the relevant vote. In case any shareholder's voting rights on any vote are prohibited or the relevant exercising methods are restricted by the Hong Kong Listing Rule, any of its attachments, any listing agreement, other contractual arrangements signed in accordance with the aforementioned documents, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange's decision, while the shareholder does not comply with the relevant provisions, the voting rights exercised by the shareholder shall be deemed to be invalid and not counted.

The shares of the Company held by the Company do not have voting rights, and this part of shares shall not be included in the total number of shares that have voting rights at the general meeting.

Article 69 The Board, independent directors and shareholders who meet the relevant conditions stipulated may solicit the voting rights of shareholders. When solicitation of voting rights of shareholders, the qualified solicitors shall fully disclose such information as voting intentions to the shareholders so solicited, and no payment or disguised payment shall be made to such shareholders. The Company may not impose any minimum shareholding limit on solicitation of voting rights.

Article 70 When a related transaction is considered in a general meeting, the following associated shareholders shall be excluded from the vote. The number of shares with voting rights represented by them shall not be counted in the number of shares with valid voting rights:

- (i) the counterparties;
- (ii) shareholders directly or indirectly controlling the counterparties;
- (iii) shareholders being directly or indirectly controlled by the counterparties;
- (iv) shareholders under common control with the counterparties, directly or indirectly;
- (v) shareholders whose voting rights being limited or affected due to outstanding equity transfer agreements or other agreements entered with the counterparties or any of their associates;
- (vi) legal persons or natural persons identified by CSRC or Shenzhen Stock Exchange that may cause the Company to shield its interests.

The announcements on resolutions of general meetings shall fully disclose the voting information of unaffiliated shareholders.

If, pursuant to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on certain matters proposed, or limited to vote only in favour of (or against) a resolution,

Article 71 Unless the company is in a crisis or other special circumstances, and unless approved by a special resolution of general meetings, the Company shall not enter into any contract with persons other than with our directors, presidents, and other senior management personnel, to transfer the management rights for all or important business of the Company to that person.

Article 72 Shareholders who hold 10% or more of the total shares of the Company may nominate candidates for directors and candidates for supervisors held by shareholder representatives.

Article 73 The list of candidates for directors and supervisors shall be submitted to general meetings by way of proposal.

Article 74 The Board shall announce to the shareholders the resumes and basic information of the candidates for directors and supervisors.

Article 75 Proposals shall be voted one by one at general meetings. If there are different proposals for the same matter, it shall be voted in “first proposed first being voted” manner. Except for special reasons such as force majeure that result in suspension of general meetings or failure to make a resolution, the proposals may not be shelved and shall be voted at the relevant general meeting.

Article 76 When a proposal is considered at a general meeting, it shall not be modified. Otherwise, the relevant changes shall be regarded as a new proposal and shall not be voted at that general meeting.

Article 77 With respect to the same voting rights, it can only be voted by one of the live, online or other voting methods. No multi-voting for the same voting rights shall be allowed, otherwise, the first ballot shall prevail.

Article 78 Unless the relevant matters shall be voted by ballot in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules, or the following persons request to vote by ballot before or after voting by show of hands, the general meetings shall vote by show of hands:

- (i) the presider of the meeting;
- (ii) at least two shareholders or their proxies with voting rights;
- (iii) one or several shareholders (including their proxies) who hold, separately or jointly, no less than 10% of the shares with voting rights at the general meeting.

Unless there is a proposal to vote by ballot, the presider shall announce the voting results based on the results of show of hands, and record them in the minutes as a final basis without proving the number of votes or its proportions in favor of or against the resolution passed at the meeting.

The request for voting by ballot may be repealed by the proposer.

The above voting method refers to a registered ballot.

Article 79 Before voting on a proposal at a general meeting, two representatives of shareholders shall be elected to participate in the counting and monitoring of votes. If shareholders have interests in the matters considered, such shareholders and their proxies may not participate in the counting or monitoring.

When a proposal is being voted at a general meeting, the lawyer(s), the representative(s) of shareholders and supervisors shall be responsible for the counting and monitoring of votes, and the voting results shall be announced on the spot. The voting result of the resolution shall be recorded in the minutes.

When voting through Internet or other means, shareholders of the Company or their proxies shall have the rights to check their voting results through the corresponding voting system.

Article 80 A general meeting shall not be closed earlier at the spot than those online or otherwise. The presider shall announce the voting results of each proposal, and announce whether the proposal is passed or not according to the voting results.

Article 81 Prior to the formal announcement of a voting results, the parties involved in the voting at the spot, online or otherwise, including the Company, counting agents, scrutinizers, major shareholders, and network service providers, shall have a duty of confidentiality for the voting results.

Article 82 Shareholders attending a general meeting shall vote in favor of, against the proposals or abstain from voting.

Votes that are unfilled, filled incorrectly, illegible, and not voted are considered as abstaining from voting by the voters. The voting results of the shares held by them shall be counted as “abstention”.

Article 83 If the matter required to be vote by ballot is to elect the presider or suspend the meeting, it shall be voted immediately; while other matters required to be voted by ballot shall be decided by the presider when the voting shall be conducted, and the meeting may proceed to consider other matters, the voting results of which shall be still considered as the resolutions passed at the meeting.

Article 84 When voting by ballot, shareholders (including their proxies) who have two or more votes shall have the right to vote in favor of or against a proposal with respect to all or part of their share with voting rights.

Article 85 If there are two or more candidates for directors or supervisors, the number of votes attached to each share held by shareholders (or represented by the proxies) shall be the same as the number of such candidates, and they may cast all of their votes for one candidate, or vote for two or more candidates, provided that instructions should be given on the distribution of voting rights.

Article 86 When the numbers of votes in favor of or against are the same, the presider shall have the right to cast one more vote, whether by show of hands or by ballot.

Article 87 If the presider has any doubt about the result of the resolution submitted for voting, he may conduct a vote-counting. If the presider does conduct a vote-counting, and the

Chapter VII Special voting Procedures for Class Shareholders

Article 95 Shareholders holding different kinds of shares are class shareholders.

The class shareholders enjoy rights and undertake obligations in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.
